

HELP WANTED

This is a reprint of a help-wanted ad that was written many years ago and apparently is continually reprinted. It was an obscure ad that was found in an obscure newspaper at an obscure news-stand in an obscure place under a pile of papers. The date line was hard to identify, but it is possible the ad is over 1900 years old. The ad read as follows:

HELP WANTED

Objective: People to witness in the Name of the Lord.

Job description:

- * Job description is to witness for the Lord Jesus of changed lives.
- * Witnessing is to persons met in daily normal life.
- * Persons include mail man, milk man, neighbors, friends, work associates, traveling companions, relatives, grocery clerk, barber or hair stylist, furniture man, waitress, doctor, dentist, lawyer, druggist, caddy, and any others.
- * No requirement to change jobs or home location, occasional increase in travel.
- * No part time work.
- * Full time help only.
- * No vacations, holidays, or free Saturdays and Sundays.
- * Day and night work.
- * Each moment must be bought regardless of convenience.
- * Required to speak the written Word in unwavering faith and confidence of the truths that change lives.
- * On the job training.
- * Must be willing to follow directions on all part of the job.
- * No management positions open.
- * No Friday paycheck or material payment.
- * No world recognition.
- * Danger of being labeled fanatic.
- * Payment is the deep working of God's love into the heart and soul, making life a thrilling experience.
- * Within each worker's life will be found love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance.

Job Qualifications:

- * Must be Spiritually born.
- * Must love the Lord Jesus more than earthly life.
- * Must be willing to give up earthly life.

Job Opportunities:

- * Job potential unlimited - the people are many, but the workers are few.

Where Interested Applicants May Apply:

- * Find a quiet place and upon your knees, pray to the Father in the Name of the Lord Jesus that you are applying for work.
- * All serious applicants are hired.
- * Apply any time - day or night - just place your thoughts on the Father and the Lord Jesus.